match with the "Peeriess Eight," of Martin's Ferry, but the effort came to naught, simply because the "eight" were not fearless of defeat, and thus a contemplated inter-city match that would have been of great interest in local checkerdom flickered.

nt county. For instance, there is Young Men's Club, and in the Men's Club there is a checker club, and in the hearts of that checker club there is no fear. And so it is that negotia-tions have come to a successful con-clusion for an inter-city checker tournfour sames, half to be played in each city. The winning team becomes the Ohio Valley champions, open to all comers, Martin's Ferry included. The games at Wheeling are to be phayed to-morrow evening at the club's quarters, and the return games at Bellairs will be contested at the rooms of the Young Men's Club the following Saturday. The teams will line up as follows:

Wesleyan University football associa-tion wired to-day, cancelling the game against West Virginia University, scheduled for Saturday, at Clarksburg. A special train had been engaged to take the West Virginia team and a big body of students to Clarksburg and there is disappointment over the action of the Ohio team. Manager Crossland at once entered upon negotiations with Washington & Jefferson and in a few hours had managed a game for Saturday, with the Pennsylvanians, to be played at Washington. This will be West Virginia's first big game of the season and a large crowd of students will go over to see the game. West Virginia will line up against them as follows: Taylor, centre; Larden, right guard; Patton, left guard; Hodges, right tackle; Chapman, left tackle; Scott, right end; Dovey, left end; Mc-Whorter, quarier; Watson, right half; McGregor, left half; Yeager, full back. A Sensation When Democratic Con-gressman Berry, of Mentucky, En the expansion speech made by the Hon.

A. S. Berry, Democratic congressman from Kentucky, and his indorsement of President McKinley's policy.

Officers for the coming year were elected, Captain John L. Vance, of Gal-

"Never will I, Democrat as I am, disiagree, because I am a Democrat with the elevation of our nation. When he says that where the banner of the nation goes up, it shall never come down, I don't think it is patriotic in anyone—Mr. Atkinson or any of the isser lights in the country—to comment on the action of the government while we have 40,000 soldiers in the Philippines. I will not comment while it is declared to be the purpose to uphold the supremacy of the United States is the control of the listands."

Captain A. H. Dugan offered a resolution wirsing Congress to construct and conrol an isthmian eanal and to provide for American shipping.

Colonel A. S. Berry then spoke in favor of the canal, and said its defeat was due to the great trunscontinental lines which fought it. He caused wild enthusiasm when he stated that the time would come when Congress would be asked for an appropriation to improve the harbor that Dewey won.

"I don't want anyone to understand," he continued. "that because I have some party affiliations I am opposed to all expansion. A CLEVER SWINDLER. A fellow giving his name as George Hadley, who said he was a farmer re-siding back of town, and had brought in a load of hay, which he said he sold to George Tweedy and received a check, called at E. K. Hoge's drug check called at E. R. Hoges drug store yesterday afternoon to get some medicine, saying he did not have enough money to pay for the same, but asked Mr. Hoge if he would take the check, which was for $11. Mr. Hoge the United States in the control of the islands."

The speech was wildly applauded.
Telegrams of regret were read from Congressman C. H. Grosvenor. Senator Foraker, Governor Bushnell. Senator Hanna and Congressman Gordon, of Ohlo, among others.
The following officers were elected: President, John L. Vance: treasurer, Captain James D. Parker: secretary, Colonel E. O. Wilson: vice presidents, Commodore F. A. Laidley, of Ohio; C. F. Murphy, of Indiana; W. W. Hite, of Kentucky: H. Quarrier, of West Virginia: J. F. Dravo, of Pennsylvania; Mayor Bixby, United States engineer at Cinclinnatt, was introduced, and promised, if he was retained in this section of the country, to do what he could to advance the interests of the association. took the check, which the stranger apparently very ignorantly endorsed and was about to eash the same when he remembered that Mr. Tweedy used checks printed expressly for his own use, and the one presented was a regular bank check. He stepped to the telephone to inquire of Mr. Tweedy if same was all right and while doing so the check forger heard the bell ring and made good his escape, evidently thinking that the police were being notified. Mr. Hoge started after the man, but when he reached the front of his store the artist had escaped. The writing on the check was a perfect fac-simile of Mr. Tweedy's writing, and Mr. Tweedy said last evening that he could not have detected any difference between it and his own had he not known that he had not made any checks payable to the order of George Hadley.

some of the elevators, but not much, in fact it is scarcer than it has been in many years. There is a shortage of railroad cars and the dealers there are skirmishing for coal at all points.

Coal soid at eight said nine cents a bushel at Cincinnati for family used during the summer, but the shortage has sent the price up to twelve cents, and it is hard to get at that price. Until a month ago the article sold at tencents and those operators who had coal made a very good profit on it. The railroads are attempting to supply the trade. There will be a good market for the river product when a rise comes. There are about a dozen landings at Cincinnati and, with few exceptions, they are owned by persons identified with the river interests. The landing are lensed for a term of years at a stated price and it is said that the coal combination is buying the leases from the present lessees.
